

Campus and Community Involvement

W&M Global Research Institute: DisinfoLab Digital Media Content Specialist

June 2021 – August 2021

- single-handedly redesigned the research lab's brand and social media guidelines, website design, and total overall communications' design and introduced a new social media post format design, focused on translating research data into digestible information for the public

W&M Global Research Institute: Programming Assistant (Marketing, Communications, and Events)

June 2020 – May 2021

- Creating and managing content for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and YouTube, as well as leading and moderating events, designing flyers and marketing materials, and assisting in Institute Donor Stewardship.

W&M Undergraduate Honor Council: 2022 Representative & Outreach Committee Chair

January 2019 – January 2022

- Elected as one of 8 grade members of the Council, upholding the oldest honor code in the nation in cases dealing with lying, cheating, and stealing at the college.

John Quincy Adams Society: Marketing and Media Chair

January 2019 – September 2021

- Helped start, run, and increase membership of the William & Mary branch, cultivating discussions of U.S foreign policy on campus through community engagement including, speaker events, podcast production, and webinars. Ran 12+ successful marketing campaigns for in-person and virtual guest speakers with up to 250 people in attendance.

SA Judiciary Review Board: Member and Community Outreach Chair

May 2019 – May 2021

- Nominated as one of 7 members of the Board, playing a role in the discipline process pertaining to Student Assembly, including any discrepancies within the Assembly or the 450 clubs and organizations on campus.

International Relations Club: Model UN Committee Director

2018, 2019, 2020

- Volunteered and led committees as a part of the 3 Model UN conferences hosted by the International Relations Club, assisting leaders with various tasks, helping run and leading a committee of 30-70 student delegates, and performing extensive research on specific, relevant international topics.

W&M Archaeology Department Research Assistant

September 2018 – December 2019

- Worked in Professor Martin Gallivan's lab of the College of William & Mary anthropology department on 3 projects dealing with anthropological research and data.

W&M Orchesis Modern Dance Company

September 2018 – February 2022

- Danced in the dance department's main stage productions as a member of the school-affiliated company, putting in 10 hours of classwork and practice time each week

Institute for Dance: Instructor

January 2019- Present

- Worked in the Williamsburg community as a dance instructor for up to 10 hours a week, cultivating art appreciation and learning in Williamsburg

W&M Mosaic Virtual Show: Performer

February 2021

- Participated in a virtual arts performance through W&M Theater Speech and dance showcasing art inspired by the pandemic

W&M STEP Office: Orientation Aid

August 2020, 2021

- Volunteered and led for new student orientation, spending a week of training to welcome and help acclimate new students to campus and the changes which come from coming to college